

(a) DFG large-deformation self-contact example damage-gradient partitioning inserts two velocity fields only where the evolving fracture/contact surface is detected

(b) Explicit surface contact after cohesive-zone failure stored surface positions and normals define the gap and normal; contact does not follow stair-step particle domains

